Just before the entrance of the bride party, a vocal solo, "O Perfect Love," was exquisitely rendered by Miss Anice Bright, of Washington, N. C.

Watkins, of Richmond, Va.; Virgil Idol, of High Point, N. C.; J. Newton Sneed, of Birmingham, Ala.; J. Frank Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C., and Hythe D. Morris, of Durham, N. C. Her bouquet was of yellow flowers to match the color scheme of the church decorations. The Secret of the Wink Is out

It was too good to keep. Winks flew thick and fast about the grocers. As a result all those sample packages of Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes went in a hurry.

Now the call for full size packages is enormous. We can't begin to fill the demand. Everybody who was fortunate enough to receive a sample wants more.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes is simply irresistible. There is something about the taste which is lacking in every other breakfast food. There are many imitations, but they imitate in name only. The taste—the only taste—belongs exclusively to Kellogg's. Your grocer has it in large packages 10 cents. Be sure and ask for

MISS JEAN REID TOWED MR. WARD
American and English Society Interested in Announcement of Approaching Wedding.

LONDON, April 29.—The engagement of Miss Jean Reid, daughter of Whitehall Reid, the American ambassador, to the Hon. John Hubert Ward, brother of the Earl of Dudley, was announced to-day by Mr. and Mrs. Reid. The announcement does not come as a surprise to London society, where the attachment of the young people has been well known for some time past to a large number of their friends.

Mr. Ward is a favorite with King Edward, to whom he is an equerry in waiting. He is popular at court and among the exclusive social set, and is well known as a racing man and enthusiastic sportsman. Mr. Ward is six feet tall and has a well-knit figure. He attends the King and Queen at all state functions. He has no chance of succeeding to the title inasmuch as the Earl of Dudley has a large family. He had a legacy of $500,000 when he became a lord, and has had other legacies since.

Prior to long time past Mr. Ward has attended all the social functions at Dorchester House, the Reids' residence, and he has dined and lunched there almost every day since Miss Reid's recent return from America. He met Miss Reid at the railroad station on her return from a trip to Paris this month.

The wedding will occur some time during the summer, but the exact date has not yet been fixed.

Large Family Reunion Marks Birthday Celebration of Mr. Hite.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FORKSVILLE, Va., April 29.—The eighty-fourth birthday of Mr. W. L. Hite was celebrated on Sunday at the residence of Mr. P. B. Thompson, a son-in-law of Mr. Hite, by his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, numbering seventy in all. The table was set out in the yard, under some massive oaks, and was loaded with everything good to eat. They could easily have fed seventy-five or 100 more, and it made one feel good to see these grown-up girls and boys and the little children all paying honor and affection to the old grandfather. Mr. Hite is a grandson of Julius Hite, who served seven years and four months under Washington and died in his ninety-sixth year in 1851. He said he never was from duty but three days, during which time he was allowed to pick chestnut burrs out of his feet. His company had to march through chestnut woods, and he had no shoes on. After the surrender of Cornwallis he was notified by the government that he could get his pay for his seven years' service, and he walked to Washington to get his money.

Mr. Hite still looks well in his eighty-fifth year. He was reared by the old Revolutionary grandfather.
